RENAISSANCE AND BAROQUE PERIOD

The Marble Palace is unquestionably the most oppressive mansion in the region, shown for the first time by Sotheby's International Realty.
With its lush marble surfaces, gossamer linens, and gilded statues, it exudes mystery

You're a Jewel!

This is a priceless treasure for your warm spaces. Nicola Galizia's lighting collection "Ebe" for Masiero is inspired by the myth of Hebe, Goddess of Youth and emblem of freshness and contemporaneity.

The result is a series of jewel lamps (wall, table, and floor) in which metal and precious stones combine with brass wire to produce luminous geometries of austere, timeless beauty.

Light passes delicately through the weave of the rich brass wire mesh lampshades, illuminating interiors with tenderness and charm.

The base in natural Onyx, an ancient and precious stone used in antiquity to make jewels, makes the lamps ethereal.
